Raise Money & Earn Huge Profits

With a unique fundraiser from the Doogie Company

8 Great Reasons to Raise Funds with doogiepage

- 1. Unique Product
doogiepages™ are safe, simple, Web pages that are very useful – and user friendly. They can be used year round for a variety of purposes, including self-promotional tools such as vitas, personal profiles, resumes, character profiles for students and athletes – and much more. Doogiepages can also be used for anything from invites to announcements – they're perfect for people who need a simple Web presence that can be updated with ease (no HTML coding) through a Web browser.
- 2. Huge Profits
Earn up to 50% of total sales regardless of how many units are sold.
- 3. Simple – No Hassle
Coordinating and managing your fundraiser is really simple. Keeping track of your sales (ie. who has sold what and how many) is done automatically, so you just sit back and reap the rewards.
- 4. Collections have never been easier.
All doogiepage™ transactions are handled online. All you do is sell them, provide the fundraiser promotion code, and point the purchasers to doogiepage.com. We handle the rest.
- 5. Instant Deliveries
Tired of having to deliver your fundraiser products after you sell them? At the time of sale, simply provide the fundraiser promotion code to your purchasers, and point them to doogiepage.com.
- 6. Inventory – what inventory?
With doogiepage™, you don't have to be concerned with inventory – no bulky boxes to deal with or items that may spoil – call it a “virtual inventory.” At the time of sale, simply provide the fundraiser promotion code to your purchasers, and point them to doogiepage.com. We take it from there.
- 7. Less Paperwork
Did we mention simple? Save time and trees without all the paperwork involved with most traditional fundraisers. Since all doogiepage™ transactions are handled online, most of the paperwork you will deal with is currency.
- 8. Excellent Service and Support
The Doogie Company is customer service driven. We believe in providing the utmost in service and support – guided by principles such as courtesy, integrity, and follow through.
